

We are SCFS...

We are passionate about befriending seafarers and sharing Christ's love and compassion with the men and women who arrive from every corner of the earth. Talk about a world mission at our doorstep!

These seafarers endure hardship and homesickness, and our Port Chaplains and volunteer ship visitors are there to support them—offering practical gifts and Christian literature, lending a listening ear, providing encouragement, and sharing the Good News of Jesus.

£10 = 1 care package

For the price of a takeaway meal, we can provide a seafarer with a gift of practical essentials.

£15 = 1 children's Bible

This is a great way to get God's Word in an easy-to-understand format into the hands of seafarers and their children!

£20 = 1 ship visit

Why not cover the cost of an in-person visit to a ship from one of our Chaplains or ship visitors?

Legacy = Priceless

A gift of any size to a ministry like SCFS in your will is a lasting testimony to the grace of God in your life, and a blessing to many.

Joshua's Story

Here's an insight into ship life from a young Filipino seafarer, who has recently met SCFS workers in Amsterdam, Cork and Limerick. Recently his ship was detained as crew were not being fed adequately and salaries weren't being paid.

Life at sea as a follower of Christ is both challenging and deeply rewarding. The isolation and difficulties of life on the water can be overwhelming, but I find strength in knowing that He is always with me. Being away from my loved ones back home is one of the challenges a seafarer like me must endure.

As a Christian, being unable to spend the Lord's Day with the church is burdensome. Although I can spend time in prayer and meditation on Scripture, I still long for fellowship with my brethren. That's why I'm grateful to God for having an encounter with a brother in Christ through a seamen's mission in Amsterdam.

Each day, I strive to live out Christ's love through my actions – whether it's showing kindness to fellow crew members, or sharing the gospel with them through casual conversations and the gospel tracks I brought from my local church.

The sea is unpredictable, but my trust in Christ anchors me, giving me peace and purpose no matter where the journey takes me. The rhythm of the waves reminds me of His constant presence, and through prayer and Scripture, I experience peace even in the storms. Being a follower of Christ at sea deepens my faith, knowing that no matter where I am, His love and grace are unchanging. It's a life of trust, repentance, surrender, and hope.

"And I am sure of this, that He (God) who began a good work in you (me) will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." (Philippians 1:6)

All the glory belongs to Him. Soli Deo Gloria.

Greetings from the ocean and thank you for your ministry and prayers,

Joshua
